

Do not allow large corporations to gobble up more stations. We need truth in media. Even now we have only a hand full of large corporations owning a large portion of the media. We cant get honest media that way. Deregulation in this industry doesnt work.